

Macatawa Park, Mich., to stand trial for "kidnaping" Scharthenberg.

John Shinorski, 44, Chicag Beach Hotel employe, fell 5 feet while wheeling cinders. Back hurt.

Jackson & Semmelmeier applied for injunction to restrain city from interfering with bathing of "September Morn."

Mary Sokole, 28, Chicago Beach Hotel scrubwoman, badly scalded. Dropped pail of hot water.

Report of Board of Review shows increase in one year of $18,608,712 in assessable real estate.

Battling Nelson's pet mule, Jinney, has disappeared from former champ's home in Hegewisch.

Police believe Dr. L. F. Mueller, 2867 Elston av., who died in St. Elizabeth's Hospital Sunday night, committed suicide.

Two boys, each 15, found stealing telephone from vacant flat 4135 Cottage Grove av. Both had copy of "September Morn" in pocket.

Mrs. J. A. Stone, Burton, Kas., is latest to claim estate of late W. H. Lee, wealthy publisher. Claims he was her brother, Jeremiah Watts.

Springfield Commercial Ass'n. complained to Interstate Commerce Commission that Eastern rail lines are discriminating against Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. Patrick Joyce, 3902 Federal st., had Pat arrested because all he does is fiddle and read the paper while she works. Case continued.

Roy C. Miracle, 740 N. State st., clerk at O.-G. Shoe Store, arrested. Charged with taking $5.

Wm. H. Thomas, 1433 Arbor pl., claims he was robbed of $10 by Mrs. Louisa Jones, 157 N. Morgan st., and later beaten by her hubby. Couple arrested.

Burglars got $25 and $50 worth of cigars from G. W. Cohen's store, 31 N. Franklin st.

Peter Deschamber, farmer, Morton Grove, badly hurt. Thrown from wagon when bumped by Fullerton av. car.

Carlo Narlich, 50, killed by State st. car at 11th st.

Frank Schultze, 22, and Alec Hriser, 21, on trial in federal court. Charged with bringing two girls from Detroit for immoral purposes.

Tony Desamone, wanted in connection with murder of James Acques, surrendered after being traced to Fond du Lac, Wis.

MRS. THAW SAYS SHE'LL SPEND HER LAST CENT FOR HARRY

Montreal, Que., Sept. 9.—"The sky's the limit" is the slogan of Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, mother of the escaped madman, as the strings of the Thaw moneybags are torn away and a trail of gold is promised Canada in the struggle to prevent Harry K. Thaw from being returned to Matteawan. If necessary Mrs. Thaw says she will spend every cent of the Thaw millions and carry the fight to the Privy Council of England and even to the King himself.

Mrs. Thaw and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, Harry's "guardian angel" sister, were in conference for several hours with the two lawyers who obtained the writ of habeas corpus which prevented Thaw being taken to Vermont by the immigration authorities.

Coaticook, Que., Sept. 9.—William Travers Jerome is returning to New York City following his acquittal on the "penny ante" charge when Judge Mulvena of Sherbrooke took the case over the protest of Judge McKee before whom the complain was made, and dismissed the charge on the ground that Jerome had violated no law. Jerome will return to be in Montreal next Monday, when the Thaw habeas corpus writ comes up before the king's bench.

FIFTEEN INJURED IN WRECK

Wiley, O., Sept. 9.—Fifteen persons injured in wreck of Pennsylvania flyer, enroute from New York to St. Louis. Steel pullmans prevented loss of life. Train going 60 miles an hour.